President Mike Roth called the meeting to order. February minutes were reviewed & approved.

NEW BUSINESS

Treasurer's Report: Michelle Neumann: VanAndel is making a ton of money for our program and for individual student accounts. There is an overage showing that Dave will be working with the school to try to figure out if we have paid all we needed to pay back to the school.

President Mike Roth announced that due to no meeting in May, the nominations for the next board need to be voted on at the April meeting. The nomination committee composed of VP Stacy Holtsclaw, Sue VandenBerge, and Joan McKinley discussed possible candidates. Stacy announced their recommendations: They nominated Jenny Riha for the VP position Jenny Riha. Treasurer will be Craig & Alaine Kemmerling. Secretary is Keri Roth.

Directors Report

Anne: Festival was a very successful experience. They were very proud of how hard the students worked. Solo Ensemble prep is underway, placement tests are next week. Recruitment season for 5th graders starts tomorrow.

Dave Zamborsky: High school festival went well, very pleased with all their performances. Fundraising chairs Melissa and Charlie have been working super hard on the gala and want to recognize their time and energy in fundraising. Winterguard Invitational went well despite the blizzard. Spring concert music is underway, high school placements will be Monday and Tuesday. Marching band show is underway and music is being written.

Seth Justice: Jazz band is going great, fun having 2 bands. Hastings jazz band festival times are Thurs April 27 Jazz 2 (at least a year) at 10am, Jazz 1 performs at 11am. Pep band concluded at the end of February. They were able to perform for a new class, Unified Sports and they organized a basketball game between Jenison and Zeeland and the pep band was able to play for that event.

Committee Reports:

Winterguard: Upcoming competitions at Caledonia and State which is held at Saginaw Valley

Fundraising: We got final numbers, made $7800 profit from the gala. Dress sale is this week Thurs/Fri. Volunteers can shop early and dinner will be provided. Saturday is the Easter Bunny Breakfast/Egg Hunt. Mattress sale is May 20, they also have sheets, pillows. Name Brand mattresses will be available. Delivery is available.

Invitational Committee: Oct 21st is this year's invitational. First meeting will be in April, already making reservations.

Props: We need a new prop chair. Denny and Jeff will be around to help the new chair throughout this year.

Wearables/Decals: Julie was not here

Next meeting is April 18.
